Donation Request

The Enlisted Spouses Club is now accepting requests for donations/financial support for various charitable purposes and services within the Fort Meade area. These funds are made possible by the efforts of volunteers and profits of the Post Thrift Shop.

Organizations and established groups associated with the Armed Forces and the Fort Meade community in need of monetary donations may send their request to:

The Enlisted Spouses Club
PO Box 105
Fort Meade, MD 20755

Requests should be typed or neatly printed and include the following information:

- *A description of the organization
- *The amount of funding needed and purpose of request
- *Any other sources of income or fund raising by your organization
- *Two points of contact to include their phone numbers
- *A complete mailing address and who the check should be made payable to (must be an organization not an individual)

Response to your request will be mailed to the address provided.
